Proof of your language skills

It may be a school report card , a university course or another recognized test certificate (eg TOEFL) proving your knowledge of English. You'll get a copy, which must be must be directly uploaded with your registration for the Mandarin Bridge Au Pair in China Program.

Passport

The passport is the most important document and is required for all subsequent formalities. It is necessary that it is valid at least 6 months at the time you are applying for the student visa and 8 free pages. You can apply for a new passport, which can take up to four weeks. Therefore we recommend you to apply for it as soon as possible. You can do this at any public service building. What you need:

- A recent biometric passport photo
- Your ID
- Birth or marriage certificate
- If applicable, your old passport

Police Report

It serves as proof of a person's criminal record. You can apply for this at your competent registration authority. All you need is your passport or ID.

We will show this to your prospective host family so that they may issue an invitation letter for you without hesitation. It is necessary to conclude the au pair contract.

Certificate of Good Health

A certificate that proves that you have no dangerous infectious diseases may be necessary for the University application, but is required by your host family to ensure the child's health. It is necessary to conclude the au pair contract.

Au pair contract

The Au Pair contract is between you and your host family. It outlines the obligations of the host family and your own responsibilities and remuneration. It is meant to give you security and to provide guidance in case of conflict. It can be changed individually with assistance from your supervisor and is the basis for further cooperation. An example of such a contract can be found on www.mandarinbridge.cn under "Links & Downloads".

Invitation Letter

The letter of invitation is required to apply for the student visa X2. Your host family or your supervisor you will send one. It sums up the essence of your relationship together.

Registration certificate of the University

The registration certificate of the university is required to apply for the X2 student visa and will be sent to you after successful registration from your supervisor. The registration at the University will be completed by your supervisor and they will make sure that this is close to the city of your host family. To register at the university he usually needs the following information or copies of documents from you:

- Copy of passport (pages with personal data and image in a German passport two pages)
- Copy of the certificate of your school / university
- Address of future student
- Information about your parents
