

Teaching in China Program Manual Application

Thank you very much for taking interest in our program!

Please note that you need Adobe Acrobat Reader 11 (free) to complete and re-save this form.

After completion, please send your application to:

application-teacher@mandarinbridge.cn

To start the matching process with your future school, we will also need the following files:

- CV in English
- application picture
- school/university certificate
- motivation letter & introduction video for the school
- if held, language/teaching certificates & references

Please note, that in some provinces a TEFL certificate may be required to obtain a working visa as a full teacher! (not necessary for teaching interns)

Statement

How did you hear about us?

If you would like us to find a suitable host institution for you rather quickly, please consider allowing us to use a simplified profile of yourself for the matching purpose. A simplified profile would comprise your given name, your age, your country of origin, a picture of you and perhaps anonymous parts of your motivation letter. In any case no contact details or other information revealing your identity will be used.

I agree that Mandarin Bridge and its partners use a simplified profile for matching purposes on their websites.
